re: bonus:

- 1) i'd feel more comfortable taking care of ■ I kind of understand the "internal equity" issue but it also assumes "all people are created equal" - i don't subscribe to that but understand the sensitivity.
- 2) I think ■ should be at ■ but if we can't do this I recommend a spot bonus to placate the bump from ■. I can't imagine she thinks that's a psychological win.
- 3) ■ market value is at ■ base. I know she wants to be here, but I think people have a difficult time saying "no" to you face-2-face b/c they respect you so much. We can discuss live.
- 4) I feel strongly good @ offering ■ and warrant your suggestion to ideally not offer her a sign-on bonus.

Jeff – hope you had a good weekend. I had a good chat with Michelle on Thursday and left it with her that you would follow up to speak further – it would be great to have her on the team.

Jeff – do you know if Linda Buck has started to set things up for the interviews?? I have not seen anything on my schedule and at minimum I was hoping she would set some of the candidates for John – can you let me know – and I can always send her an update too.

Can you also let me know which are the key roles you are focused upon – I am doing an update for T's staff on 11/30 and want to provide an update on our key focus areas.

Thanks, d
